a. DISPATCH: Tenant is expected to perform necessary due diligence on all repair requests. Tenant understands that they may be required to troubleshoot common issues such as resetting electrical/GFI breakers. If Owner's Agent manages the Premises, Tenant must submit all repair requests to Owner's Agent in writing to the Owner's Agent by logging in to the Ziprent platform at www.ziprent.com/auth (the "Repair Request Page") and providing a detailed explanation of each issue or failure and the steps taken to resolve the issue or failure, along with at least two photos and any other details that may be required to complete the submission on the Repair Request Page before occupancy. Once Owner approves a vendor bid, and a vendor has been assigned, Tenant agrees to promptly communicate directly with such vendor to schedule the relevant repair. Owner's Agent shall not be obligated to accompany the relevant vendor when any such repairs are performed, though Owner's Agent may in its sole discretion elect to accompany such vendor.

b. AVAILABILITY/CANCELLATION: As part of repair/maintenance processing, Owner and/or Owner's Agent shall coordinate the date and time for the relevant vendor to visit the Premises to resolve an issue. Tenant acknowledges and understands that he or she must be present during all repairs and that such vendors may assess cancellation or no-show fees if Tenant cancels within 24 hours (or such other time period as dictated by the relevant vendor's cancellation policies) or may not be available after confirmation of such an appointment. If Tenant cancels an appointment and a no-show and/or cancellation fee is charged, Tenant agrees that such charges (which would be impracticable or extremely difficult to fix in advance) will be expensed to the Tenant to the extent such charges are incurred because of the Tenant's action or inaction. Upon completion of the visit, Tenant agrees to notify Owner and/or Owner's Agent of the results of any repair,and any completion, insufficiency or lack thereof within 24 hours of such repair being performed.

12. INVENTORY. Any furnishings and/or equipment furnished by Owner will be listed in the an addendum that is specific to the Premises. Tenant will maintain the furnishings, fixtures, and equipment in good condition and repair and will be responsible for any damage to such furnishings, fixtures, and equipment other than normal wear and tear. Owner is responsible for providing a maximum of one set of keys and/or openers under this Agreement; provided, however, that in jurisdictions where a set needs to be provided for each adult Tenant, Owner will pay for the cost of procurement and/or duplication of keys to satisfy the laws of the jurisdiction. At the termination of the tenancy, Tenant agrees to return any and all keys and openers received from Owner or Owner's Agent, as well as any keys and openers that were duplicated during the tenancy.

13. DAMAGES TO/DESTRUCTION OF PREMISES. If the Premises are destroyed by fire, earthquake, flood, or other casualties which renders the Premises totally uninhabitable, either party will have the right to terminate this Agreement as of the date the damage occurs. Written notice of termination must be given to the other party within seven (7) days after the occurrence of such damage. Unless otherwise provided by law, Tenant shall not be entitled to terminate this Agreement due to damage or destruction that was caused by Tenant's negligence or negligence of Tenant's guests or invitees, in which case only Owner will have the right to terminate this Agreement. If the damage is partial, and the Premises are only temporarily uninhabitable, at Owner's discretion, Owner may promptly repair the Premises, and there will be a proportionate rent reduction for the time period during which the Tenant was unable to make reasonable use of the Premises until such time as the Premises are repaired and ready for Tenant's occupancy. The proportionate reduction will be based on the extent to which repairs interfere with Tenant's reasonable use of the Premises.

14. ENTRY AND COOPERATION. Owner shall have the right to enter the Premises at all reasonable times and for any purpose as is allowable under applicable law. Owner will provide written notice (and request Tenant consent, if and when required under applicable law) to the Tenant before the entry of the Premises whenever such notice is required by applicable law, and unless an emergency requires otherwise. Tenant agrees to cooperate fully with Owner so that (1) any repairs or alterations which are necessary for the Premises are made in as expeditious and efficient a manner as possible and (2) Owner may show the Premises to prospective tenants after reasonable notice is given to Tenant in accordance with applicable law.
15. TENANT'S INDEMNITY. Tenant agrees Owner shall not be liable, and Tenant hereby waives all claims against Owner for any damage to any property or any injury to any person in, on, or about the Premises by or from any cause whatsoever, except to the extent caused by or arising from the negligence or willful misconduct of Owner or its agents, employees or contractors. Tenant shall protect, indemnify and hold the Owner, Owner's Agent, and their respective agents, representatives, principles, directors, subsidiaries, parents, and affiliates (collectively, "Affiliated Parties") harmless from and against any and all loss, claims, liability or costs (including court costs and attorney's fees) incurred by reason of (a) any damage to any property or any injury to any person occurring in, on or about the Premises, and any damage or injury to the extent that such injury or damage shall have been caused by, related to, or arisen from any actual or alleged act, neglect, fault, or omission by or of Tenant, its agents, invitees, or guests; (b) the conduct or management of any work, activity, or thing whatsoever done by the Tenant or Tenant's guest or invitee in, on, or about the Premises; (c) Tenant's refusal or failure to comply with any and all governmental laws, ordinances and regulations applicable to the condition or use of the Premises or its occupancy; or (d) any breach or default on the part of Tenant in the performance of any covenant or agreement on the part of the Tenant to be performed pursuant to this Agreement. The provisions of this Article shall survive the termination of this Agreement with respect to any claims or liability accruing before such termination. Nothing in this Paragraph shall be construed to reduce or otherwise affect Owner's obligations to maintain the Premises in compliance with the laws of the state where the Premises are located.
16. SIGHT UNSEEN DISCLOSURE & RELEASE: Owner and Owner's Agent each recommends and encourages any prospective tenant to view the Premises in person before signing this Agreement or sending a proxy to view the Premises. Despite this recommendation, in the event that Tenant has decided to rent the Premises "sight unseen," Tenant acknowledges that, at Tenant's request, Owner or Agent has rented the premises "sight unseen" to Tenant. Tenant further acknowledges that any and all photos of the Premises used by Owner's Agent to market the Premises online or that may have been shared with Tenant before occupancy, were developed by Owner or Owner's Agent for marketing purposes only and are not to be used to determine the condition of the Premises by Tenant nor as the final determinant on whether to rent the Premises, because, as Tenant acknowledges, many factors which may determine the suitability of the Premises for Tenant's purposes cannot be accurately portrayed without viewing the Premises in person.

As a Tenant renting "sight unseen," Tenant further acknowledges that by proceeding to sign this Agreement, Tenant fully understands and accepts the inherent risks of renting the Premises from Owner or Owner's Agent "sight unseen". Thus, Tenant may not under any circumstance use the fact that Tenant entered into this Agreement "sight unseen" as a reason to void this Agreement and/or to excuse, invalidate, or disregard Tenant's obligations hereunder. If at ANY POINT after the signing of this Agreement, Tenant decides to terminate this Agreement before its expiration, and Tenant does not have a valid legally qualifying reason for such termination, then the Lease Break Provision in this Agreement shall come into effect. Tenant expressly acknowledges and affirms that Tenant has read and accepted the above provisions of this SIGHT UNSEEN DISCLOSURE & RELEASE paragraph. Tenant understands and acknowledges the risks associated with signing this Agreement sight unseen and undertakes to assume such risks. Tenant understands that if Tenant arrives at the Premises and decides that Tenant no longer is interested in Premises that Tenant can invoke the Lease Break Provision specified in this Agreement in accordance with the terms thereof.

17. PHYSICAL POSSESSION. If Owner is unable to deliver possession of the Premises at the Commencement Date, Tenant will not be liable for any Rent until possession is delivered, and Tenant may terminate this Agreement if possession is not delivered within 5 business days of the Commencement Date.

18. DEFAULT. If Tenant fails to pay Rent when on or before the Rent Due Date, or if Tenant fails or neglects to perform any obligation or duty arising under any provision of this Agreement, after not less than the minimum days' notice period required by applicable law, Tenant shall be in default of this Agreement and Owner or Owner's Agent may provide notice of termination provided that any notice to terminate the Tenant's tenancy must comply with the applicable law of the state where the Premises are located, and must be given in such a manner as required by applicable law. In the event of a default by Tenant, Owner may, at its sole and absolute discretion, in addition to any remedies available to Owner pursuant to applicable state and local laws, elect to (a) continue the Lease in effect and enforce all Owner's rights and remedies, including without limitation the right to recover the Rent as it becomes due, or (b) at any time (or after any time period permitted by applicable law) terminate all of Tenant's rights hereunder. If Owner terminates this Lease, Owner may recover from Tenant an amount of monetary compensation equal to: (A) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid rent which had been earned up until the time of termination (the "Unpaid Rental Loss"); (B) the worth at the time of award of the Unpaid Rental Loss less the amount that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided by Owner in connection therewith up to the maximum amount allowed by applicable law (the "Avoidable Rental Loss"); (C) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent for the balance of the term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such Avoidable Rental Loss; and (D) up to the maximum amount allowed by law, any other amount necessary to compensate Owner for all detriment, expense, or injury proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement or which in the ordinary course of things would be likely to result therefrom, including without limitation the cost of recovering possession of the Premises and expenses of or relating to re-leasing, including without limitation any renovations or alteration of the Premises, reasonable attorneys' fees, real estate commissions, the unamortized value of any free rent, reduced rent, tenant improvement allowance or other economic concessions provided by Owner. Tenant further agrees to pay any and all additional collection agency fees and/or commissions, which might be as much as 40% of the principal balance due, as well as any attorney fees and court costs. The "worth at time of award" of the amounts referred to in this section shall be computed by allowing interest at the lesser of ten percent (10%) per annum or the maximum interest rate permitted by applicable law. The worth at the time of award of the amount referred to in this section shall be computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of award plus one percent (1%). The provisions of this paragraph are not intended and do not alter the Owner's obligation to mitigate damages as may be required under applicable state or local law.

19. LEASE BREAK PROVISION. Tenant is fully responsible for Rent payments during the entire Term. Should unforeseen circumstances arise, and Tenant chooses to vacate the Premises before the Expiration Date of the Term and/or lease period, and Tenant has a legally valid reason for such early termination under the laws of the state and local jurisdiction where the Premises are located, Tenant shall be excused of its obligation to pay rent for the remainder of the Term (or such lesser time period as is mandated by law) under this Agreement, provided that (a) Tenant agrees in advance of abandonment of the Premises to cooperate with Owner and/or Owner's Agent in showing the Premises to prospective tenants, (b) Tenant continues to pay Rent under the terms of this Lease until a new tenant occupies the property and begins to pay rent, (c) Tenant pays a flat nonrefundable fee of $ 1250.00 (which Tenant agrees and acknowledges is a reasonable calculation of the cost to procure a new tenant) or the maximum amount allowable under applicable law, whichever is less, and (d) once a new lease is signed, Tenant agrees to vacate the Premises at least 7 days prior to the new lease date to allow sufficient time for turnover. Owner's Agent and Owner shall work together to locate and screen new tenants to sign a new lease/rental agreement for the Premises as soon as practicable. If Tenant is unable to perform under Subsections (a)-(d) of this Section 19, Owner shall reserve all rights relating to Tenant's abandonment of the Premises and the Tenant's violation or breach of this Lease pursuant to the laws of the jurisdiction where the Premises are located.

20. SECURITY. The security deposit required herein will be used by Owner in accordance with applicable law, to offset any damage by Tenant, guests of Tenant, Tenant invitees, or Tenant Pets/Animals, including, but not limited to, any and all unusual wear and tear; replacing Owner's personal property, fixtures, or appurtenances damaged by Tenant, Tenant's guests or invitees, or Tenant Pets/Animals; the packing, removing, and storing of abandoned property by Owner or Owner's Agent; removing abandoned or illegally parked vehicles; removal of fixtures installed by or at the direction of Tenant; any unpaid accounts (including without limitation Rent and utilities); and for any other amounts due under this Agreement, all to the maximum extent allowable under the law, and as otherwise stated in any applicable state-specific addendum. Owner will only deduct such amounts as are reasonably necessary to cure such defaults in accordance with applicable law. See applicable State Law Addendum for additional terms. Owner may make deductions from the security deposit throughout the Term of the tenancy if all or any portion of the security deposit is used during the tenancy, to the extent allowable under the laws where the Premises are located. Tenant agrees to reinstate the total security deposit within three business days after written notice is delivered to Tenant. Security deposit (or any portion thereof) will be returned only to the individual Tenant that remitted the security deposit at the start of the tenancy and to no other

If deductions exceed the security deposit, the Tenant agrees to pay Owner the excess within ten calendar days after Owner makes a written demand in relation thereto.

TENANT ACKNOWLEDGES, UNDERSTANDS, AND AGREES THAT THE SECURITY DEPOSIT IS PAID DIRECTLY BY TENANT TO OWNER. OWNER'S AGENT WILL NOT HOLD OR POSSESS THE SECURITY DEPOSIT. TENANT SHALL LOOK SOLELY AND EXCLUSIVELY TO THE OWNER FOR THE RETURN OF THE SECURITY DEPOSIT (OR ANY PORTION THEREOF) AND HEREBY EXPRESSLY AND COMPLETELY RELEASES OWNER'S AGENT AND ALL OF ITS EMPLOYEES, MANAGERS, MEMBERS, LICENSEES, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, AND REPRESENTATIVES FROM ANY LIABILITY RELATED TO THE SECURITY DEPOSIT AND AGREES TO INDEMNIFY AND HOLD HARMLESS OWNER'S AGENT AND ALL OF ITS EMPLOYEES, MANAGERS, MEMBERS, LICENSEES, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, AND REPRESENTATIVES FROM ANY AND ALL CLAIMS, INJURIES, DAMAGES, AND LIABILITIES RELATED TO OR ARISING OUT OF THE SECURITY DEPOSIT.

21. WAIVER. Failure of Owner to enforce any provision of this Agreement will not be deemed a waiver of the right to enforce such provision. The acceptance of Rent by Owner will not waive Owner's right to enforce any provision of this Agreement.
22. EXPIRATION. If Tenant does not vacate the Premises after the expiration of the Term under this Agreement, the tenancy will continue, with the written consent of Owner, as a month-to-month tenancy at a monthly rental rate that is either equal to the Rent herein described or at an increased rate (after written notice of such rental increase is given to Tenant in accordance with applicable law) and all other provisions of this Agreement shall continue unless and until a new lease and/or rental agreement is entered into by the parties. Owner reserves the right to terminate this Lease at the end of the lease term after giving Tenant any legally required notice. If the Premises are located in a state or municipality where rent control laws are in effect, the rent increases and termination provisions herein shall comply with such laws.
23. APPLICATION OF PAYMENTS: Regardless of any notation on the payment, all payments accepted by Owner shall be applied in the following order of priority: Security Deposit, damages, any other fees due under this Agreement, attorney fees, court costs, and lastly to rent, if allowed by applicable local laws.
24. INTEREST: Any balance which remains unpaid for 30 days or any judgment entered against Tenant shall accrue interest at highest rate allowed under applicable state and local laws.

Tenant is responsible for all fees and coordination of scheduling to the maximum extent allowable under applicable law. Notwithstanding such HOA rules or regulations, to facilitate same-day turnovers, Tenant agrees to move into the unit after 4:00 PM Local Time on the day of move-in and will move out by 12:00 PM Local Time on the day of the move-out. Owner's Agent may, at its discretion, coordinate and accommodate earlier or later move-in times and/or move-out times but shall be under no obligation to do so. Owner and/or Owner's Agent shall provide Tenant with a digital move-in form specifying any existing damages to the Premises, and Tenant shall complete the digital move-in form within five calendar days of occupancy or Tenant shall be deemed to have accepted the Premises in its existing condition with no defects.

b. MOVE-OUT AND NOTICE: Tenant agrees to provide at least 30 calendar days' notice, before the Expiration Date, of Tenant's intent to vacate. Owner and/or Owner's Agent will set the date and time for the move-out inspection, and upon request, Tenant will be notified of when the move-out inspection will occur. Tenant may be present at the move-out inspection.

c. SHOWINGS: Tenant agrees to reasonably cooperate with all showings during the last 30 days of the tenancy Term by allowing prospective tenants to enter and view the Premises at least twice a week for no more than 1 hour each time. Prospective tenants may not be accompanied by an agent, and Tenant agrees to provide access and show Premises to prospective tenants at the agreed-upon time.

d. CLEANING: Tenant agrees to pay for professional cleaning and carpet cleaning (if carpets exist within the Premises) upon move-out, regardless of whether Tenant cleans the Premises or carpet before Tenant delivers possession in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and applicable law.

26. OWNER'S AGENT. Tenant acknowledges that Owner's agent is acting on behalf of Owner. The main role of Owner's Agent is to facilitate communication between Tenant, Owner, and vendors, as well as to coordinate rent collection. Tenant acknowledges that Owner must approve any and all repairs directly, and any funds (deposit, rent, fees, etc.) paid will be directly deposited into Owner's account. Tenant acknowledges and understands that Owner's Agent does not hold any funds for any period of time.

27. TIME. The parties agree and acknowledge that time is of the essence of this Agreement.

28. ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE. Upon ten days' request, Tenant agrees to execute a completed estoppel certificate detailing the terms of their tenancy setting forth at a minimum: (i) the name of Tenant, (ii) that the Agreement has or has not been modified and the date of each modification (together with copies of each such modification), (iii) the rent payable under the Agreement, (iv) whether there are any alleged defaults by Tenant under the Agreement and, if so, setting forth the nature thereof in reasonable detail, (v) the amount of the security deposit, and (vi) as to such other matters as Owner may reasonably request.

29. SUBROGATION. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law and available insurance policies which may be owned by the parties, Owner and Tenant waive any and all rights of subrogation against each other which might otherwise exist.

30. FAIR HOUSING. State and federal housing laws prohibit discrimination in the sale, rental, appraisal, financing, or advertising of housing based on race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, ancestry, familial status, source of income, age, mental or physical disability, immigration or citizenship status. No harassment of any kind will be tolerated on or about the Premises.

31. SMOKING RESTRICTIONS. Owner does NOT allow smoking, including the existence of cigarette butts, e-cigarettes, vaping or similar products (collectively "Smoke Products"), in or anywhere on the Premises, including without limitation common areas by any person (including without limitation Tenant and Tenant's family, relatives, invitees, intruders, and guests). This prohibition applies to tobacco and all other substances. Tenant acknowledges and agrees to inform its guests of any smoking restrictions to ensure their cooperation with such restrictions. Tenant acknowledges a breach of this Section constitutes an immediate, material, and incurable breach of this Agreement which cannot be brought into compliance after such breach. Upon such breach, Tenant further agrees:
    a. to immediately pay Owner a fine of (1) $ 200.00 per violation; and (2) an additional $ 20.00 per day until Tenant vacates the Property; and
    b. to immediately pay for all costs, including both labor and materials, relating to the remediation and/or repair of any damage, injury, or odors caused by, relating to, or resulting from due to the use or presence of Smoke Products on the Premises, including but not limited to, the painting of ALL walls and ceilings, the replacement of ALL flooring including ALL carpeting and pad in the entire dwelling and the replacement of ALL burned items, including but not limited to, all floor coverings, fixtures, and counter tops.
32. MOLD. Because mold spores are ever-present in the air, the potential for mold exists in any living space. Owner represents that upon Tenant taking over possession of the property, the Premises are free and clear of any hazardous levels of mold. The key to reducing the risk of a mold problem is keeping the Premises clean and dry. Tenant shall minimize mold by keeping the Premises ventilated; keeping hard surfaces clean and dry (including without limitation all walls, doors, windows, windowsills, and countertops); placing furniture at least an inch from exterior walls; opening window coverings every day (e.g., curtains, blinds, shades, etc.); running bathroom fans for an hour after bathing (or opening the bathroom window slightly if there is no fan). Additional information on how Tenant can minimize mold growth and exposure is available from the EPA at www.epa.gov/moldresources.html. Tenant shall report excessive mold development to Owner immediately. Owner shall have no liability for mold caused by Tenant's failure to properly heat, clean, or ventilate the Premises, unless Owner assumes responsibility, therefore expressly and in writing. See applicable State Law Addendum, if any.
33. LEAD-BASED PAINT DISCLOSURE: Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint, paint chips, and dust can pose health hazards if not managed properly. Lead exposure is especially harmful to young children and pregnant women. Before renting pre-1978 housing, landlords must disclose the presence of known lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards in the dwelling. Tenants must also receive a federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention. Owner has no knowledge of lead-based paint and has no reports or records pertaining to lead-based paint, unless otherwise outlined in the General Addendum below. Owner's agent has informed the Owner of his/her obligations under 42 U.S.C. 4852d, and the Agent is aware of his/her responsibility to ensure compliance. Tenant acknowledges receipt of any information outlined in the General Addendum below pertaining to lead paint and has received the pamphlet Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home (attached to this lease).

34. PEST CONTROL. Owner will provide pest control only to address infestations that compromise the structural integrity of the Premises (e.g. termites, carpenter ants, carpenter bees). Tenant will immediately notify the Owner and/or Owner's Agent if the Tenant suspects any infestation that may jeopardize the structural integrity of the Premises. Other common household pests including ants, cockroaches, spiders, small bees nests, and rodents are Tenant's responsibility. Tenant shall make a good faith effort to keep the Premises free from all vermin, rodents, pests, and other infestations. To that end, to the extent allowable under the law where the Premises are located, Tenant agrees, at Tenant's expense, to engage the services of an exterminator to treat the demised Premises at sufficiently frequent regular intervals necessary to keep the demised Premises free from such infestation. Owner shall, at Owner's expense, engage the service of an exterminator to treat all common areas (between and inside buildings) in a good faith attempt to keep the premises free of pests. Tenant shall cooperate with Owner, Owner's Agent and/or with any contractor(s) engaged by Owner in respect to pest control and extermination in the Premises. If so required by Owner, and if Owner can prove that the pests present in the Premises have been caused because of the tenant's living habits, Tenant shall be responsible for pest control and pest extermination in respect to the Premises and shall engage, for such purpose, such contractors and at such intervals as Owner may require.
35. RENT CONTROLS/RENT INCREASES. Required notices prior to any increase in rent shall be given in accordance with applicable law. See state law addenda, if any.
36. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE: If any provision of this Agreement is held illegal or unenforceable, only the portion of such provision shall be severed and shall be inoperative, and the remaining portion of such provision of this Agreement shall remain operative and binding on the Parties.
37. GOVERNING LAW. Except to the extent that any law of the United States may apply, this Agreement shall be governed and interpreted according to the laws of the state where the Premises are located, without regard to any choice of law, rules, or principles to the contrary.
38. ELECTRONIC PAYMENT NOTICE. Owner's Agent, as part of its rent and deposit payment coordination with Owner, will facilitate a third-party payment processor to process ACH transactions from Tenant to Owner's account. These transactions must comply with provisions of NACHA rules and regulations and US Law. As stated above, Owner's Agent will not handle any Tenant funds (rent, fees, security deposits, etc.) all such funds are transferred via ACH directly from Tenant to Owner (or as otherwise specified between Owner and Tenant above).
39. DISCLOSURE OF PERSON(S) AUTHORIZED TO MANAGE THE PREMISES AND INFORMATION FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS AND NOTICES: Unless otherwise provided or required by law, any notice which either party may give or is required to give, must be given electronically. Electronic notices to Owner's Agent or the Owner shall be electronically delivered to admin@ziprent.com, and electronic notices to Tenant shall be given to Tenant at the most current email address on file for Tenant at www.ziprent.com. Any such electronic notice will be deemed effective when transmitted irrespective of whether the addressee shall actually open or read the electronic notice and/or its attachments. For any notice which is required by law to be written or personally delivered or to be mailed first class, postage prepaid (a "Non-electronic Notice"), shall be delivered to Tenant at the Premises or to Owner or Owner's authorized agent at the Non-electronic Notices from Tenant shall be addressed and/or delivered as follows to the person(s) signing who are either (a) the Owner or (b) are authorized to (1) manage the premises and (2) receive information for service of process and notices. Tenant's response to or acknowledgment of receipt of an email or text message or if there is a delivery receipt shall be deemed receipt of any Notice so long as the Notice has also been sent in any other manner as may be required by applicable law.

40. DEATH OR INCAPACITY OF TENANT: Tenant may provide and update Owner and Owner's Agent at manager@ziprent.com with the name and contact information of a person who is authorized to enter the Premises to retrieve and store Tenant's personal property if Tenant dies or becomes incapacitated during the Term of this Lease. If Tenant dies during the Term of this Lease and does not have a designated person who is authorized to enter the Premises to retrieve and store Tenant's personal property, Owner or Owner's Agent may and is hereby authorized to handle the disposition of Tenant's personal property pursuant to the provisions of the law of the state where the Premises are located.
41. SERVICEMEMBERS' CIVIL RELIEF ACT: If Tenant enters into military service or is a military service member and receives military orders for a change of permanent station or to deploy with a military unit or as an individual in support of a military operation for a period of ninety (90) days or more, Tenant may terminate this Lease by delivering written notice and a copy of Tenant's official military orders to Owner. In such a case, the Lease shall terminate thirty calendar days after the next monthly rental payment is due. Military permission for base housing does not constitute a change of permanent station order.
42. CREDIT REPORTING: As required by law, you are hereby notified that a negative credit report reflecting on your credit history may be submitted to a credit reporting agency if you fail to fulfill the terms of your credit obligations.
43. RELEASE UPON RENEWAL: If this Agreement is a renewal of a prior lease agreement, Tenant agrees to waive any and all claims, liabilities and obligations of any kind relating, in part or in whole, to any claims or disputes which accrued prior to the signing of this Agreement. Accordingly, Tenant hereby releases and discharges Owner, including any corporations, subsidiaries and affiliated corporations and entities, insurers, attorneys, officers, directors, shareholders, agents, employees and all persons claiming under or through the Party from any and all claims, demands, judgments, rights, liability, damages, debts, obligations, costs, fees, expenses, performance claims, warranty claims, bailment claims, promises and causes of action of every kind and nature, known and unknown, that have been brought or that could have been brought for any actions which occurred prior to the signing of this Agreement. This Section shall not prohibit Owner from pursuing any prior breach or claim whether arising under or in connection with this Agreement or any prior agreement or lease.
44. DISPUTE RESOLUTION: The parties agree to first attempt to resolve any disputes arising under or in connection with this Agreement through mediation, conducted in the jurisdiction where the Property is located. If mediation does not successfully resolve the dispute, the parties agree to submit to binding arbitration in the same jurisdiction, according to the rules of the American Arbitration Association, or another arbitration service agreed upon by the parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if applicable law mandates that disputes must be settled in the trial courts, the parties shall submit to the jurisdiction of the state courts in the jurisdiction where the Property is located. Regardless of the process or venue for dispute resolution, the parties retain the right to seek injunctive relief from a court of competent jurisdiction to prevent imminent harm or to preserve the status quo while mediation, arbitration, or litigation is pending.

45. FALSE INFORMATION: Tenant warrants the information contained in this Agreement, in Tenant's rental application or any other information or documents (including without limitation any emails, texts, digital messages, or letters) provided by Tenant to Owner are true, accurate and complete. Tenant further states that Tenant has fully disclosed to Owner in writing any pertinent information, including but not limited to pending criminal charges and/or criminal convictions, prior evictions, and/or prior bankruptcy filings of any Tenant and/or occupant. Tenant acknowledges a breach of this Section constitutes an immediate, material and incurable breach of this Agreement which cannot be brought into compliance allowing and entitling Owner, at its sole and absolute discretion, to commence unlawful detainer or eviction proceedings under applicable state laws without any opportunity to cure.

46. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. The foregoing constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and may be modified only in writing and signed by all parties. This Agreement and any modifications, including any photocopy or facsimile, may be signed in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original and all of which taken together will constitute one and the same instrument. ALL ADDENDA ATTACHED HERETO HAVE BEEN MADE A PART OF THIS AGREEMENT BEFORE THE PARTIES' EXECUTION.

Mold

What are molds?

Molds are tiny microscopic organisms that digest organic matter and reproduce by releasing spores. Molds are a type of fungi and there are over 100,000 species. In nature, mold helps decompose or break-down leaves, wood and other plant debris. Molds become a problem when they go where they are not wanted and digest materials such as our homes.

What makes molds grow in my home?

Mold enters your home as tiny spores. The spores need moisture to begin growing, digesting and destroying. Molds can grow on almost any surface, such as wood, ceiling tiles, wallpaper, paints, carpet, sheet rock, and insulation. The mold grows best when there is lots of moisture from a leaky roof, high humidity, or flood. There is no way to get rid of all molds and mold spores from your home. But you can control mold growth by keeping your home dry.

Can I be exposed to mold?

When molds are disturbed, they release spores into the air. You can be exposed by breathing air containing these mold spores. You can also be exposed through touching moldy items, eating moldy food or accidental hand to mouth contact.

Do molds affect my health?

Most molds do not harm healthy people. But people who have allergies or asthma may be more sensitive to molds. Sensitive people may experience skin rash, running nose, eye irritation, cough, nasal congestion, aggravation of asthma or difficulty breathing. People with an immune suppression or underlying lung disease, may be at increased risk for infections from molds. A small number of molds produce toxins called mycotoxins. When people are exposed to high levels of mold mycotoxins they may suffer toxic effects, including fatigue, nausea, headaches, and irritation to the lungs and eyes. If you or your family members have health problems that you suspect are caused by exposure to mold, you should consult with your physician.

When is mold a problem?

You know you have mold when you smell the "musty" odor or see small black or white specks along your damp bathroom or basement walls. Some mold is hidden growing behind wall coverings or ceiling tiles. Even dry, dead mold can cause health problems, so always take precautions when you suspect mold. Mold is often found in areas where water has damaged building materials and furniture from flooding or plumbing leaks. Mold can also be found growing along walls where warm moist air condenses on cooler wall surfaces, such as inside cold exterior walls, behind dressers, headboards, and in closets where articles are stored against walls. Mold often grows in rooms with both high water usage and humidity, such as kitchens, bathrooms, laundry rooms, and basements. If you notice mold or know of water damaged areas in your home, it is time to take action to control its growth.

When should I sample for mold?

You don't need to sample for mold because in most cases you can see or smell mold. Even a clean, dry house will have some mold spores, but not enough to cause health problems. If you smell mold it may be hidden behind wallpaper, in the walls or ceiling, or under the carpet. If you suspect you have hidden mold be very careful when you investigate, protect yourself from exposure in the same manner as you would for a clean-up. See the chart below.

Can I control mold growth in my home?

Yes you can. Dry out the house and fix any moisture problems in your home:

- Stop water leaks, repair leaky roofs and plumbing. Keep water away from concrete slabs and basement walls.
- Open windows and doors to increase air flow in your home, especially along the inside of exterior walls. Use a fan if there are no windows available.
- Make sure that warm air flows into all areas of the home. Move large objects a few inches away from the inside of exterior walls to increase air circulation.
- Install and use exhaust fans in bathrooms, kitchens, and laundry rooms.
- Ventilate and insulate attic and crawl spaces. Use heavy plastic to cover earth floors in crawl spaces.
- Clean and dry water damaged carpets, clothing, bedding, and upholstered furniture within 24 to 48 hours, or consider removing and replacing damaged furnishings.
- Vacuum and clean your home regularly to remove mold spores.
- Check around your windows for signs of condensation and water droplets. Wipe them up right away so mold can’t start to grow.

What can I use to clean up mold?

Clean up mold and take care of the problem by following the advice above to keep your home dry and keep mold out. Act fast! Mold damages your home as it grows. Clean it up as soon as possible.

Size the Moldy Area
Decide if you have a large or small area of mold. A small area is less than about ten square feet, or a patch three feet by three feet square. To clean a small area, follow the advice below. You may use a cotton face mask for protection.
If you have a lot of mold damage (more than ten square feet) consider hiring a cleaning professional. If the moldy area has been contaminated by sewage or is in hidden places, hire a professional. To find a professional, check under "Fire and Water Damage Restoration" in your Yellow Pages. If you decide to clean up on your own, follow the guidance below.

Use Protection
Wear goggles, gloves, and breathing protection while working in the area. For large consolidated areas of mold growth, you should wear an Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) approved particle mask.

Seal the Area
Seal off area from the rest of your home. Cover heat registers or ventilation ducts/grills. Open a window before you start to clean up.

Remove Items
Remove all your furnishings to a mold-free area. Clean the surrounding moldy area then follow cleaning directions below for the items you removed and the new space.

Bag Moldy Trash
Bag all moldy materials and tie off the top of the bag. Bring them outdoors and place in your garbage container right away.

Scrub Surfaces

- First wash with a mild detergent solution, such as laundry detergent and warm water. Allow to dry.
- (Optional step) Then wipe with a solution of 1/4 cup bleach to one gallon of water. Wait 20 minutes and repeat. Wait another 20 minutes.
- Last apply a borate-based detergent solution and don't rinse. This will help prevent mold from growing again. A borate-based laundry or dish washer detergent has "borate" listed on the ingredients label.

Clean and Wash
Give the entire area a good cleaning, vacuum floors, and wash any exposed bedding or clothing.

Monitor
Check regularly to make sure mold has not returned to the clean-up area.

What cleans moldy furniture and other items?

- For wood, metal, plastic, glass, ceramics, and other objects that don't absorb water but are washable - wipe them with a solution of lukewarm water and laundry detergent.
- For clothes, bedding, and other materials that absorb water and are washable - wash them in the laundry.
- For beds, sofas, and other furniture that absorb water but are not washable - these items may need to be discarded. Or, try to save them by vacuuming well and allowing to air out. If there is no odor it may be okay. Mold can come back, so watch for any mold growth or mold related health problems. Discard the item if you suspect mold is growing inside or outside the item.

Should I paint over mold?

No. Don't paint or caulk over mold. The mold will grow under the paint and the paint will peel.

I'm a renter or landlord, what help can you provide for a mold problem?

Mold problems in buildings are a result of water and moisture problems. Excess moisture comes from leaks or condensation. Tenants and landlords both have responsibilities for addressing water and moisture problems that can cause mold. Generally, fixing leaks is the landlord's responsibility and reducing condensation is the renter's responsibility. See our mold resources for renters and landlords (www.doh.wa.gov/rentermold).

Who are my local contacts for more information about mold?

In Washington, you can contact your local county health department (www.doh.wa.gov/localhealth) for more information about mold. If you live outside of Washington State, try contacting your county or state health department.

Are You Planning to Buy or Rent a Home Built Before 1978?

Did you know that many homes built before 1978 have lead-based paint? Lead from paint, chips, and dust can pose serious health hazards.

Read this entire brochure to learn:

- How lead gets into the body
- About health effects of lead
- What you can do to protect your family
- Where to go for more information

Before renting or buying a pre-1978 home or apartment, federal law requires:

- Sellers must disclose known information on lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards before selling a house.
- Real estate sales contracts must include a specific warning statement about lead-based paint. Buyers have up to 10 days to check for lead.
- Landlords must disclose known information on lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards before leases take effect. Leases must include a specific warning statement about lead-based paint.

If undertaking renovations, repairs, or painting (RRP) projects in your pre-1978 home or apartment:

- Read EPA's pamphlet, The Lead-Safe Certified Guide to Renovate Right, to learn about the lead-safe work practices that contractors are required to follow when working in your home (see page 12).

Simple Steps to Protect Your Family from Lead Hazards

If you think your home has lead-based paint:

- Don't try to remove lead-based paint yourself.
- Always keep painted surfaces in good condition to minimize deterioration.
- Get your home checked for lead hazards. Find a certified inspector or risk assessor at epa.gov/lead.
- Talk to your landlord about fixing surfaces with peeling or chipping paint.
- Regularly clean floors, window sills, and other surfaces.
- Take precautions to avoid exposure to lead dust when remodeling.
- When renovating, repairing, or painting, hire only EPA- or state-approved Lead-Safe certified renovation firms.
- Before buying, renting, or renovating your home, have it checked for lead-based paint.
- Consult your health care provider about testing your children for lead. Your pediatrician can check for lead with a simple blood test.
- Wash children's hands, bottles, pacifiers, and toys often.
- Make sure children avoid fatty (or high fat) foods and eat nutritious meals high in iron and calcium.
- Remove shoes or wipe soil off shoes before entering your house.

Lead Gets into the Body in Many Ways

Adults and children can get lead into their bodies if they:

- Breathe in lead dust (especially during activities such as renovations, repairs, or painting that disturb painted surfaces).
- Swallow lead dust that has settled on food, food preparation surfaces, and other places.
- Eat paint chips or soil that contains lead.

Lead is especially dangerous to children under the age of 6.

- At this age, children's brains and nervous systems are more sensitive to the damaging effects of lead.
- Children's growing bodies absorb more lead.
- Babies and young children often put their hands and other objects in their mouths. These objects can have lead dust on them.

Women of childbearing age should know that lead is dangerous to a developing fetus.

- Women with a high lead level in their system before or during pregnancy risk exposing the fetus to lead through the placenta during fetal development.

Health Effects of Lead

Lead affects the body in many ways. It is important to know that even exposure to low levels of lead can severely harm children.

In children, exposure to lead can cause:

- Nervous system and kidney damage
- Learning disabilities, attention deficit disorder, and decreased intelligence
- Speech, language, and behavior problems
- Poor muscle coordination
- Decreased muscle and bone growth
- Hearing damage

While low-lead exposure is most common, exposure to high amounts of lead can have devastating effects on children, including seizures, unconsciousness, and, in some cases, death.

Although children are especially susceptible to lead exposure, lead can be dangerous for adults, too.

In adults, exposure to lead can cause:

- Harm to a developing fetus
- Increased chance of high blood pressure during pregnancy
- Fertility problems (in men and women)
- High blood pressure
- Digestive problems
- Nerve disorders
- Memory and concentration problems
- Muscle and joint pain

Check Your Family for Lead

Get your children and home tested if you think your home has lead.

Children's blood lead levels tend to increase rapidly from 6 to 12 months of age, and tend to peak at 18 to 24 months of age.

Consult your doctor for advice on testing your children. A simple blood test can detect lead. Blood lead tests are usually recommended for:

- Children at ages 1 and 2
- Children or other family members who have been exposed to high levels of lead
- Children who should be tested under your state or local health screening plan

Your doctor can explain what the test results mean and if more testing will be needed.

Where Lead-Based Paint Is Found

In general, the older your home or childcare facility, the more likely it has lead-based paint.[1]

Many homes, including private, federally-assisted, federally-owned housing, and childcare facilities built before 1978 have lead-based paint. In 1978, the federal government banned consumer uses of lead-containing paint.[2]

Learn how to determine if paint is lead-based paint on page 7.

Lead can be found:

- In homes and childcare facilities in the city, country, or suburbs,
- In private and public single-family homes and apartments,
- On surfaces inside and outside of the house, and
- In soil around a home. (Soil can pick up lead from exterior paint or other sources, such as past use of leaded gas in cars.)

Learn more about where lead is found at epa.gov/lead.

[1] "Lead-based paint" is currently defined by the federal government as paint with lead levels greater than or equal to 1.0 milligram per square centimeter (mg/cm), or more than 0.5% by weight.

[2] "Lead-containing paint" is currently defined by the federal government as lead in new dried paint in excess of 90 parts per million (ppm) by weight.

Identifying Lead-Based Paint and Lead-Based Paint Hazards

Deteriorating lead-based paint (peeling, chipping, chalking, cracking, or damaged paint) is a hazard and needs immediate attention. Lead-based paint may also be a hazard when found on surfaces that children can chew or that get a lot of wear and tear, such as:

- On windows and window sills
- Doors and door frames
- Stairs, railings, banisters, and porches

Lead-based paint is usually not a hazard if it is in good condition and if it is not on an impact or friction surface like a window.

Lead dust can form when lead-based paint is scraped, sanded, or heated. Lead dust also forms when painted surfaces containing lead bump or rub together. Lead paint chips and dust can get on surfaces and objects that people touch. Settled lead dust can reenter the air when the home is vacuumed or swept, or when people walk through it. EPA currently defines the following levels of lead in dust as hazardous:

- 40 micrograms per square foot (µg/ft^2) and higher for floors, including carpeted floors
- 250 µg/ft^2 and higher for interior window sills

Lead in soil can be a hazard when children play in bare soil or when people bring soil into the house on their shoes. EPA currently defines the following levels of lead in soil as hazardous:

- 400 parts per million (ppm) and higher in play areas of bare soil
- 1,200 ppm (average) and higher in bare soil in the remainder of the yard

Remember, lead from paint chips—which you can see—and lead dust—which you may not be able to see—both can be hazards.

The only way to find out if paint, dust, or soil lead hazards exist is to test for them. The next page describes how to do this.

Checking Your Home for Lead

You can get your home tested for lead in several different ways:

- A lead-based paint inspection tells you if your home has lead-based paint and where it is located. It won't tell you whether your home currently has lead hazards. A trained and certified testing professional, called a lead-based paint inspector, will conduct a paint inspection using methods, such as:
  - Portable x-ray fluorescence (XRF) machine
  - Lab tests of paint samples

- A risk assessment tells you if your home currently has any lead hazards from lead in paint, dust, or soil. It also tells you what actions to take to address any hazards. A trained and certified testing professional, called a risk assessor, will:
  - Sample paint that is deteriorated on doors, windows, floors, stairs, and walls
  - Sample dust near painted surfaces and sample bare soil in the yard
  - Get lab tests of paint, dust, and soil samples
- A combination inspection and risk assessment tells you if your home has any lead-based paint and if your home has any lead hazards, and where both are located.

Be sure to read the report provided to you after your inspection or risk assessment is completed, and ask questions about anything you do not understand.

In preparing for renovation, repair, or painting work in a pre-1978 home, Lead-Safe Certified renovators (see page 12) may:

- Take paint chip samples to determine if lead-based paint is present in the area planned for renovation and send them to an EPA-recognized lead lab for analysis. In housing receiving federal assistance, the person collecting these samples must be a certified lead-based paint inspector or risk assessor
- Use EPA-recognized tests kits to determine if lead-based paint is absent (but not in housing receiving federal assistance)
- Presume that lead-based paint is present and use lead-safe work practices

There are state and federal programs in place to ensure that testing is done safely, reliably, and effectively. Contact your state or local agency for more information, visit epa.gov/lead, or call 1-800-424-LEAD (5323) for a list of contacts in your area.[3]

What You Can Do Now to Protect Your Family

If you suspect that your house has lead-based paint hazards, you can take some immediate steps to reduce your family's risk:

- If you rent, notify your landlord of peeling or chipping paint.
- Keep painted surfaces clean and free of dust. Clean floors, window frames, window sills, and other surfaces weekly. Use a mop or sponge with warm water and a general all-purpose cleaner. (Remember: never mix ammonia and bleach products together because they can form a dangerous gas.)
- Carefully clean up paint chips immediately without creating dust.
- Thoroughly rinse sponges and mop heads often during cleaning of dirty or dusty areas, and again afterward.
- Wash your hands and your children's hands often, especially before they eat and before nap time and bed time.
- Keep play areas clean. Wash bottles, pacifiers, toys, and stuffed animals regularly.
- Keep children from chewing window sills or other painted surfaces, or eating soil.
- When renovating, repairing, or painting, hire only EPA- or state-approved Lead-Safe Certified renovation firms (see page 12).
- Clean or remove shoes before entering your home to avoid tracking in lead from soil.
- Make sure children avoid fatty (or high fat) foods and eat nutritious meals high in iron and calcium. Children with good diets absorb less lead.

Reducing Lead Hazards

Disturbing lead-based paint or removing lead improperly can increase the hazard to your family by spreading even more lead dust around the house.

- In addition to day-to-day cleaning and good nutrition, you can temporarily reduce lead-based paint hazards by taking actions, such as repairing damaged painted surfaces and planting grass to cover lead-contaminated soil. These actions are not permanent solutions and will need ongoing attention.
- You can minimize exposure to lead when renovating, repairing, or painting by hiring an EPA- or state-certified renovator who is trained in the use of lead-safe work practices. If you are a do-it-yourselfer, learn how to use lead–safe work practices in your home.
- To remove lead hazards permanently, you should hire a certified lead abatement contractor. Abatement (or permanent hazard elimination) methods include removing, sealing, or enclosing lead-based paint with special materials. Just painting over the hazard with regular paint is not permanent control.

Always use a certified contractor who is trained to address lead hazards safely.

- Hire a Lead-Safe Certified firm (see page 12) to perform renovation, repair, or painting (RRP) projects that disturb painted surfaces.
- To correct lead hazards permanently, hire a certified lead abatement professional. This will ensure your contractor knows how to work safely and has the proper equipment to clean up thoroughly.

Certified contractors will employ qualified workers and follow strict safety rules as set by their state or by the federal government.

If your home has had lead abatement work done or if the housing is receiving federal assistance, once the work is completed, dust cleanup activities must be conducted until clearance testing indicates that lead dust levels are below the following levels:

- 40 micrograms per square foot (µg/ft^2) for floors, including carpeted floors
- 250 µg/ft^2 for interior windows sills
- 400 µg/ft^2 for window troughs

For help in locating certified lead abatement professionals in your area, call your state or local agency (see pages 14 and 15), or visit epa.gov/lead, or call 1-800-424-LEAD.

Renovating, Remodeling, or Repairing (RRP) a Home with Lead-Based Paint

If you hire a contractor to conduct renovation, repair, or painting (RRP) projects in your pre-1978 home or childcare facility (such as pre-school and kindergarten), your contractor must:

- Be a Lead-Safe Certified firm approved by EPA or an EPA-authorized state program
- Use qualified trained individuals (Lead-Safe Certified renovators) who follow specific lead-safe work practices to prevent lead contamination
- Provide a copy of EPA's lead hazard information document, The Lead-Safe Certified Guide to Renovate Right

RRP contractors working in pre-1978 homes and childcare facilities must follow lead-safe work practices that:

- Contain the work area. The area must be contained so that dust and debris do not escape from the work area. Warning signs must be put up, and plastic or other impermeable material and tape must be used.
- Avoid renovation methods that generate large amounts of lead-contaminated dust. Some methods generate so much lead-contaminated dust that their use is prohibited. They are:
  - Open-flame burning or torching
  - Sanding, grinding, planing, needle gunning, or blasting with power tools and equipment not equipped with a shroud and HEPA vacuum attachment and
  - Using a heat gun at temperatures greater than 1100°F
- Clean up thoroughly. The work area should be cleaned up daily. When all the work is done, the area must be cleaned up using special cleaning methods.
- Dispose of waste properly. Collect and seal waste in a heavy duty bag or sheeting. When transported, ensure that waste is contained to prevent release of dust and debris.

To learn more about EPA's requirements for RRP projects visit epa.gov/getleadsafe, or read The Lead-Safe Certified Guide to Renovate Right.

Other Sources of Lead

While paint, dust, and soil are the most common sources of lead, other lead sources also exist:

- Drinking water. Your home might have plumbing with lead or lead solder. You cannot see, smell, or taste lead, and boiling your water will not get rid of lead. If you think your plumbing might contain lead:
  - Use only cold water for drinking and cooking.
  - Run water for 15 to 30 seconds before drinking it, especially if you have not used your water for a few hours.

  Call your local health department or water supplier to find out about testing your water, or visit epa.gov/lead for EPA's lead in drinking water information.
- Lead smelters or other industries that release lead into the air.
- Your job. If you work with lead, you could bring it home on your body or clothes. Shower and change clothes before coming home. Launder your work clothes separately from the rest of your family's clothes.
- Hobbies that use lead, such as making pottery or stained glass, or refinishing furniture. Call your local health department for information about hobbies that may use lead.
- Old toys and furniture may have been painted with lead-containing paint. Older toys and other children's products may have parts that contain lead.[4]
- Food and liquids cooked or stored in lead crystal or lead-glazed pottery or porcelain may contain lead.
- Folk remedies, such as "greta" and "azarcon," used to treat an upset stomach.

[4] In 1978, the federal government banned toys, other children's products, and furniture with lead-containing paint (16 CFR 1303). In 2008, the federal government banned lead in most children's products. The federal government currently bans lead in excess of 100 ppm by weight in most children's products (76 FR 44463).

IMPORTANT!

Lead From Paint, Dust, and Soil in and Around Your Home Can Be Dangerous if Not Managed Properly

- Children under 6 years old are most at risk for lead poisoning in your home.
- Lead exposure can harm young children and babies even before they are born.
- Homes, schools, and child care facilities built before 1978 are likely to contain lead-based paint.
- Even children who seem healthy may have dangerous levels of lead in their bodies.
- Disturbing surfaces with lead-based paint or removing lead-based paint improperly can increase the danger to your family.
- People can get lead into their bodies by breathing or swallowing lead dust, or by eating soil or paint chips containing lead.
- People have many options for reducing lead hazards. Generally, lead-based paint that is in good condition is not a hazard (see page 10).
